2. Travel Insurance

Incredible Journeys does not provide travel insurance but we strongly encourage travelers to purchase it for their protection. Please note that most travel insurance must be purchased within 7-10 days of the deposit in order to cover pre-existing conditions. This varies by company; please inquire with your travel insurance agent. Some insurers (such as Medicare) will not apply overseas.

Travelers on past tours have used the following insurance providers. Incredible Journeys in no way endorses these companies or makes any guarantees as to their policies, but provides this list for convenience:

- Nationwide Travel Insurance, travel.nationwide.com
- Allianz Travel Insurance, www.allianztravelinsurance.com

3. Passports & Visas

Please start this process early! Incredible Journeys requires passport information upon registration.

If you already have a passport, it must be valid up to six (6) months after the return of your trip. BE SURE TO CHECK THE EXPIRATION DATE! Please refer to <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports/how-apply.html> for instructions on how to obtain a passport and for passport renewals in the US. For US citizens, a Visa is not required when traveling to France, Spain or Portugal for stays less than 90 days. Every air traveler 18 years of age and older will be required in the US to use the new driver's license REAL ID-compliant driver's license, state-issued enhanced driver's license, or another acceptable form of ID to fly within the United States.

4. Flight Information

4.1.1. Group Air

Incredible Journeys negotiates and secures group air contracts with all major airlines. This allows us to provide discounted group rates and keep all passengers within the group traveling together.

All airlines require valid passport information to book flights. To ensure that we are able to provide this information accurately, passport information is required upon registration.

Incredible Journeys will apply each registered passenger's name to the group air contract approximately 60 days prior to departure. Airline Ticket and Confirmation numbers will be provided to each passenger via email. Please double check your ticket upon receipt to ensure all information is correct and the name matches your passport.

Check in at the airport 2½ hour before departure for all international flights and 2 hours for domestic flights. Present your passport (and REAL ID-compliant driver's license) and e-ticket at check in.

4.1.2. Frequent Flyer Numbers

Frequent Flyer numbers are not always accepted in group air contracts at time of ticketing, but they will be submitted nonetheless. In addition to your confirmation and e-ticket nos., please carry your frequent flyer number with you so that if it has not been inputted by the airlines, they can do it at the counter.

4.1.3. Seat Requests & Seat Changes

Incredible Journeys makes every effort to honor each request received by our passengers regarding seating preferences and upgrades. Please understand that although requests are being made directly with the airline, not every request is guaranteed or granted by the airline. If you would like to make any changes to your seat, you are welcome to request a seat change upon check-in at the airport prior to departure.

4.1.4. “Land Only” Tour Package

Incredible Journeys understands that some will wish to arrange their own air transportation for their tour. Arranging transportation on your own gives you the ability to use your flight miles for your ticket, secure the seat you desire/require, etc. However, because our group air contracts allow us to hold space with the airline, we are able to limit cancellation penalties in the event of a group or passenger cancellation. If the flight schedule you purchase arrives or departs at a time different from the group, it is your responsibility to join the group either at the airport of the final destination or at the first hotel.

5. Accommodations

5.1. Hotels

We will be staying in very nice 4 star hotels. Hotel amenities (internet, hair dryers, etc.) are usually outlined on the websites given on your flight/hotel list. We have been told by pilgrims that hair dryers in other countries do not heat up as well as ones in the US, but you will need adapters for ones you bring with you (see information below in 7.4). There is no guarantee that all hotels offer laundry services or ironing equipment, so we recommend packing in a way where you do not depend on hotel services. Most hotels offer free Wi-Fi to access the internet, although service can be inconsistent.

5.2. Roommates

The group package price is based on double occupancy. Rooming Arrangements: Please read this before requesting a roommate.

We hope if you are married, your spouse can join you. If you are a couple but not married, we welcome you with open arms and excitement about experiencing this pilgrimage together. Because the focus of a pilgrimage is for each participant to personally draw closer to Jesus and help others grow in holiness, following his pattern of life, we respectfully ask that you room separately. If you want a roommate but do not have someone in mind, we will do our best to supply one of the same gender. Single rooms are available upon request, though the cost is significantly higher.

5.3. Tour Bus

Our group will be transported each morning from the hotel to various sites and returned for dinner in the evening. The tour bus is not equipped with restroom facilities. The bus will be secured at each stop so personal items may remain on the bus. Most buses are equipped with Wi-Fi.

6. Vaccinations

No vaccinations are required on this journey. The CDC recommends up-to-date vaccinations for Tetanus/Polio/Diphtheria and Hepatitis A.

7. Packing

7.1. Important Packing Tips!

- Pack as light as possible! While touring, comfortable casual clothing such as jeans, shorts, and T-shirts is recommended. Dressing in layers is also recommended. Some sites require everyone to wear pants and shirts with sleeves; we will indicate this ahead of time. There will never be a time where you have to “dress up”.

- Bring a good pair of walking shoes; they should be comfortable, supportive, and have good tread. Some days include several miles of walking (not all at once), sometimes over uneven terrain.
- Bring a compact umbrella, rain jacket, or poncho, some sort of collapsible hat, sunscreen, as well as fully protective sunglasses (blocks 100% of both UVA and UVB rays).
- While the hotel can provide wake-up calls, it's best to set your own watches and clocks.
- Bring washcloths in a Ziploc bag if desired. Some hotels do not provide these.
- Money, jewelry, valuables, and important documents, such as your passport or prescription drugs, should be carried with you.

7.2. Baggage Allowance

The airline only allows one piece of checked luggage per person, one carry-on, and one personal item (purse, laptop). After that, there is a fee charged by the airline. Our bus can only accommodate one piece of checked luggage/person.

Weight and size restrictions vary according to airline; please refer to the airline for current baggage allowances.

7.3. Medications & Medical Conditions

- Most medications should be carried in your carry-on bag and kept in their original pharmacy containers. Due to security, some medications may not be permitted in your carry-on luggage. Since these restrictions are subject to change, please check for specific restrictions with the airline 24 to 48 hours prior to your departure.
- Please bring a current copy of your prescriptions for all medications. Keep these with you in case of loss of your medications or questions by security.
- Optionally, for safety reasons and our ability to help in case of an emergency, please provide the Tour Manager a list of medical conditions and the medications you are on; these will be shredded upon return to the U.S.
- If prone to motion sickness, bring nausea bands or motion sickness medicine.
- We welcome those of all ages and activity levels! While there is a fair amount of walking, the pace is slow and easy. Previous tours have included pilgrims up to 90 years old; they were able to participate in almost all activities!

7.4. Electricity

Your phone and electronic devices require adapters for type C and F power outlets. The C and F type adapters are interchangeable with each other and are also compatible with type E. All three countries have C in common (France C/E and Spain and Portugal C/F).

The voltage is 230V while the frequency is 50 Hz, which is consistent with the rest of the Eurozone. If you are unsure what you need for which appliance, please check with the manufacturer or owners' manual. Adapters and converters are available online and in luggage sections of major department stores.

7.5. Weather

In October in western Europe, range from mid 40s to high 60s (in Spain and Portugal into the 70s) Fahrenheit generally has temperatures that range from pleasant to warm, with precipitation levels ranging from low to high. It is best to layer and carry an umbrella, at least have one on the bus.

8. Cell Phones

Contact your cell phone provider to determine whether your cell phone will work in the countries you will be visiting and make sure you understand the rates. Many carriers offer international plans which may include voice and data.

You will want to change the settings on your smartphone to avoid roaming charges. Check your owner's manual on how to stop your smart phone from roaming, collecting background data, and updating itself while traveling, or you may be hit with a huge phone bill for data and international roaming charges.

9. Currency

- Most establishments prefer euros, many vendors will accept credit cards, especially Visa and MasterCard. Of course, there are fees associated with using credit cards because of currency exchange.
- We recommend bringing €100-200 in euros, unless you plan to buy a number of items from street vendors or small shops who may not be set up for credit cards. You will need currency for bottled water and lunch (while on land), some public restrooms, small donations at local churches you visit who depend on tourists to maintain their buildings/grounds, and spending money.
- You can use ATMs, but it is probably safer to choose one adjacent to a bank v. a standalone one.
- Notify your bank and credit card company in advance to alert them you will be traveling and do not want your cards to be shut down because of "suspicious" charges abroad. You may have the option of receiving a text each time your card is used with the source and amount charged.
- Traveler checks may be an option but you will pay fees both to get them in the US and to cash them anywhere in the world. Some places will not accept them.
- Acquire some sort of water-resistant Travel Wallet (some come with a neck strap, some go around your waist so it is out of sight). Purchase one with multiple pockets and compartments along with RFID blocking which prevents electronic snoopers from stealing passport and credit card information.
- Tipping: Your tour package includes tips for your mainland bus driver and guide, etc. as well as breakfasts and dinners at the hotel. When paying for lunches or other meals on your own, travelers should determine if the tip has already been included on the bill. If not, in Europe 10% is a reasonable amount for the tip for sit down establishments.

10. Shopping

There is time factored in for shopping. Our partners in Europe know the best places for the best prices, and we will do our best to steer you away from the places that may take advantage of tourists. Traveling as a group, it is important (and safer) to stay close in proximity to our group, so no one should wander off alone. It is critical for us to be back in the bus at the designated time after shopping excursions in order to have the best opportunity to get to the sites planned.

IJ will provide such documentation in its possession as is required by the Client's insurer to support client's claim for coverage. Further, in the event that the payments or deposits made by Client are less than the amounts paid by IJ to reserve space or fares which are non-refundable, Client shall not receive any funds pursuant to the Cancellation Schedule and shall remain liable to IJ for any funds expended on Client's behalf along with reasonable handling fees. Client shall remain liable to IJ for any actual damages to IJ resulting from Client's cancellation of the Agreement.

IJ's consent to or approval of any act by Client requiring IJ's consent or approval shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of IJ's consent to or approval of any subsequent act of Client.

9. NOTICES

All notices, demands or other communications in this Agreement provided to be given, made or sent by either party to the other shall be deemed to have been duly given, made or sent when made in writing and deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, and addressed to the respective party at the appropriate address set forth in the Initial Terms.

To the extent it conflicts with this Agreement, any information found in any advertising material, brochure, or web site is hereby superseded by this Agreement. Any amendment to or revision of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties.

11. ACTS OF GOD

Client shall have the option of (1) taking a refund pursuant to the provisions for cancellation above, or (2) selecting an alternate program of equivalent value through IJ if the tour is canceled by reason of any Act of God, such as war, labor dispute, martial law, state of emergency, earthquake, or the like.

12. TRAVEL CONDITIONS

12.1. Hotels. Hotels utilized are doubles/twins. Each room will have private facilities, including shower or bath. A supplement surcharge is applicable to participants in single accommodations.

12.2. Fluctuations, Substitutions with Group. Client may, under certain circumstances, substitute another person in their stead. Substitutions on flights are allowed subject to the terms of the airline contract. The addition of a new person is charged at the best price available. IJ will use its best efforts to keep the new person at the group rate. This will incur a substitution fee of $150. IJ must receive the substitution deposit/payments before making a refund to the Client.

12.3. Flight Arrangements: All flights will be scheduled at the discretion of IJ. Tour price is based on airfare flying round trip from the location stated in the tour brochure. The operators providing transportation are not responsible for any act, omission or event during the time that passengers are not on board their aircraft or conveyances. IJ has no responsibility or liability of any nature whatsoever for loss, damage, or injury to property or person resulting from the provision of air or motorcoach transportation. If Client misses any included transportation segment (e.g. flight, transfer, bus or train departure), Client is responsible to make arrangements for and to pay the cost of rejoining the group.

13. FREQUENT FLYER PROGRAM MEMBERS

If Client desires to use frequent flyer miles for free tickets, Client will need to book its flights directly with the airline and purchase a "Land Only" package from IJ. IJ is unable to provide ticket copies after departure for mileage credits. Client should check with their preferred carrier to determine if Client qualifies for any mileage accrual.

14. LAND ONLY

Any Client can choose the 'Land Only' package after their initial full-tour reservation has been made in writing, faxing or emailing up to 90 days prior to departure. Anyone changing to a 'Land Only' option 90 to 0 days prior to departure will be subject to a $1,000 change fee. If Client chooses the 'Land Only' option, they must arrange for their own ground transportation to and from the airports and any mid-tour flights.

15. TOUR PRICES

The services specified are based on a minimum of number of passengers. If this quota is not reached, the tour may be canceled and costs refunded. All tour prices quoted for transportation and land arrangements are based on rates (including foreign exchange rates) and taxes in effect at time of publication and are subject to change. Adjustments will be made when the exchange rate varies more than 5% at 90 days prior to departure. Confirmation of final air and land prices and taxes will be advised at that time.

16. TRAVEL INSURANCE

Travel insurance is highly recommended. Purchase of travel insurance is left up to the individual traveler.
